There are 3 weeks of kindness activities planned.

The media center is in the middle of a makeover. There will be new spaces made for creativity, electronic usage, and great places for students. It will be done over the summer, and funding is still be looked at.

Treasurer's Report

No fundraiser fundraiser is going well, money is coming in. The PTO membership numbers are down this year, which is unusual because the size of the classes still gives around 700 students at Hastings.

Yellowbird total is going to be around $1,000. This will help make up for the lower than expected income from the Golden Bear Fundraiser – which is still in its early phases.

Still working on the shed to house the new bicycles for the multi-handicap room. Looking into City Ordinances on placement of it.

Presidents Report

The Board is trying to fill any open spots for Committee Chairs for next school year.

Meghan Harder made a motion, seconded by Melissa Ford, to vote to allow Lisa Olvey to continue for a 3rd year in her role as treasurer of deposits.

VOTING AYE: unanimous

VOTING NAY: None

Spirit Wear is still needing a Committee Chair person.

The School supply sale is set for August 6th, 2018.
